J. M. WEBB,*316 Fort Street.*THE LOCK AND THE KEY.You can operate a lock only with the key that fits it. Very well. So you can cure a disease only with the medicine that goes down to the cause of it. Now, many so-called diseases are in truth only forms of one disease, branches of one tree, as we may say.
For example, if we can nourish the body and enrich the blood, we speedily get rid of many of our troubles, such as Anemia, Fevers, Rheumatism, Scrofula and Blood Disorders, and so on—all proofs that the body lacks vitality and force. Nothing is so effective a body-builder as cod liver oil; but, alas, how many are nau-sated at the very thought of it. InWAMPOLE'S*PREPARATION,of the nutritive properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, we have the rose without the thorn; the valuable drug minus its vile taste. Add to this the Syrup of Hypophosphites Compound for making bone, and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry for equally excellent purposes, and we have a remedy indeed; one as pleasing to the palate, and stomach as it is potent and successful in banishing disease in old or young and in giving life worth having. You cannot be disappointed in it.
It is not like the old things; it surpasses them. It is good—as it is famous. Every dose effective. Sold

A Philosophical Composer.There has been discussion lately in some of the German and Austrian papers over the authorship of that everlastingly popular ditty known to English singing people as "How Can I Leave Thee?" a lyric with an unctuous sentimentality that has worked havoc at innumerable college promenade concerts and commencement occasions. The song has been claimed for three separate composers—for Friedrich Lux, for Friedrich Kucken and for that gifted and half-crazed Johann Ludwig Bohner, who used to go about the streets of Oldenburg until he heard a pianoforte going, when he would calmly walk into even an utter stranger's house and play superbly for hours at a sitting, the same Bohner who sent packing a large and expectant concert audience with the graceful declaration, "It is impossible for Ludwig Bohner to play for such a lot of idiots!" Nothing less than ecclesiastical authority has been called in to settle the dispute about the song. It seems that Bohner's own words decide the matter against him, often as the air has been credited to him.Aged Pastor Edmund Nicolai of Gotha deposes before a notary that, one evening in 1882, while he and Bohner were playing duets together, there came through the window the sound of "How Can I Leave Thee?" Pastor Nicolai therewith congratulated Bohner on the popularity of his song. "No," answered Bohner sharply, "that song is not mine. It is by Organist Lux." Not long after aged Pastor Nicolai asked the eminent organist if he had indeed composed the song and was answered in the affirmative by Lux, with the explanation that he had not acknowledged it, as it was "such fun to see other men steal its authorship." Organist Lux evidently possessed a philosopher's bump of humor.—Harper's Weekly."As Gold Is Tried."It is only the pure hearts that can endure unharmed the tests and trials that come in life. A lady picked up a ring on the street and took it to a jeweler to know if it were of any value. He decided that it was gold, but to make sure for her said:
"I will put it in acid. If real, there will be no change; if imitation, the acid will corrode and destroy it." The ring was dropped in, the lady watched anxiously and received back her treasure uninjured, only purer and brighter for the testing.
In this way our hearts are sometimes tested in this sinful world. Pure hearts will stand the test and come out bright and clear. We ought often to examine our hearts to see if they are the pure metal that can go through this world without being corrupted. A pure heart is an invaluable jewel.—Selected.Buttwhent.The word buttwhent comes from the called because it is triangular.THE HONOLULU SANITARIUM.
